FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special Despatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, October 11.

PURSUANT TO REMARK to yesterday.

The General Comptroller has decided that drafted men, promoted after having served two years, and finally discharged as soldiers, are not entitled to the extra bounty of the act of July 28th, 1866. The law of July 4th, 1864, provides bounties of $100, $200 and $300 for men enlisted for one, two and three years, and $100 for men enlisted for one year, three years or during the war. As Congress, in its progress legislation, has first made a distinction between substitutes and drafted men, and then between substitutes and drafted men for the latter, and finally between the latter as to the date of the act of July 28th, 1866, limited men and their heirs and their heirs, drafted men and their substitutes are not entitled to bounties under substitutes are not entitled to bounties under

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

MONETARY.

THURSDAY EVENING, October 11, 1866.

Most of the financial interests of the country centered for money trading yesterday, and others, it was evenly. Currency was wanting at a shade above, owners of the investment commanding the necessary. Eligible customers to [illegible] standing did not difficulty in obtaining discounts at the usual rate—10 per cent. On the street good paper sells at 12@15 per cent per month, and choice may be had for 10 per cent.

In the afternoon the Merchants' Mutual opened its doors for business, and the Bank of Commerce commenced offering; and rates from trade, at the banks, and the various brokers' offices, were very much better than they were in the forenoon. Gold remained the same yesterday as per account, and the rates were steady at par and 1/8 discount buying. Sterling and Canada bills at 9 per cent discount.

On the Produce Exchange Flour was quiet and active and firm. Wheat advanced 2@3c. Corn was in fair demand and better. Oats were in active request, and 1@2c higher. Rye opened stronger but closed weak and lower. Barley was in fair demand, and was held firmly. Provisions were quiet. Lake freights remained the same. Groceries were firm. Coffee advanced 1/2c. Sugar was 1/4c higher for Raw and Refined. Whiskey was firm at 24@24 1/2c for No. 2. Petroleum was dull and lower.

The gold market was steady, and at one time an advance of 1/8 was noted, on yesterday's prices, though at the close, there was a relapse. This movement included, in financial circles, the belief that other war measures—This conclusion was arrived at by Hon. Reverdy Johnson, Hon. Thomas Ewing, Hon. Montgomery Blair, Hon. Henry Stanbery, Hon. Jeremiah S. Black, Hon. Stanley Matthews, Hon. Jacob M. Howard, Hon. Benjamin F. Butler, Hon. Samuel Shellabarger, Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, Hon. John A. Bingham, Hon. Samuel Shellabarger, Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, Hon. John A. Bingham, Hon. Robert Dale Owen, Hon. Thomas Ewing, Jr.

The Public Funds were, with a few exceptions, lower to-day. Sixes of 1881 were steady. Five-twenties were dull and lower. The other loans declined to-day. Ten-Forties remained steady. Seven-Thirties were 1/8 lower, and on the other loans were nearly steady.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1868.

THE CITY.

Grand Lodge.—Grand Master Gurley, a number of the Grand officers and a large delegation of Masons from Joliet will visit Lincoln Lodge No. 43, Lake street (corner of Clark and Lake), next Monday evening, and present a gavel supposed to be made of wood from the Ark. A good time is anticipated.

Masonic Lodge.—Union Temple, No. 382, Halsted, a little south of Madison, having leased the store No. 40 Lake street (corner of Clark and Lake), now occupied by Mr. Bassett, and fitted up the same in elegant style, will open it for the reception of visitors and members of the fraternity, and to make for the forthcoming anniversary.

To Correct Errors.—A correspondent asks: "Do the cars run from here to Council Bluffs?" In answer to No. 7 it is reported that the line will be completed from Chicago to that point in January next. Till that time any correspondent may ask himself a question and answer it, or take the usual course at introduction.

Non Dead.—The report of the death of Dr. Wilson, the well known Surgeon of the Sheridan Regiment (10th), to be at hand, and that the county Doctor was in jail offering to sell the head of the dead rogue that he had in a bottle, is pronounced by the Democratic press of this city as false. We cheerfully make the correction, and we hope the report may be true—for the Democratic press, and may they be kept supplied with one of them.

Death of Mrs. Dr. Brainard.—We regret to announce the death of the wife of Rev. Dr. Brainard, for many years the pastor of the first Baptist Church of this city. Mrs. Brainard died yesterday morning, at the residence of her husband, in Chicago. Rest. A long and useful life was brought to a close by the death of this excellent lady. She was beloved and esteemed by all who knew her.

The Last Tunnel.—The great work is progressing with rapidity and success. There are twelve men at the tunnel, and forty Dead feet of work has been accomplished, that fills going it blind for the next week, with an interesting portion of soil, the work progresses at a great rate, and we may be reasonably assured to be completed by the first day of January.

Assault-Larceny.—William S. Faust, lately a clerk in the employ of David Witherell at No. 281 Randolph street, was before Justice Morrison yesterday afternoon, charged with stealing two pairs of pants and two vests from the store of his employer. It appeared from the evidence that the accused had sold some of the goods to a friend, and that he had also taken a pair of pants from the store, which he had pawned. Verdict of guilty. Sentence to the House of Correction for ninety days.

Wisconsin Central.—Sunday trains will arrive and depart from the depot of the Wisconsin Central Railroad, corner of Michigan avenue and Van Buren street, as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Leave Chicago | 9:00 a. m. |
| Arrive at Fond du Lac | 4:30 p. m. |
| Leave Fond du Lac | 5:00 p. m. |
| Arrive at Chicago | 12:30 a. m. |

Still the Same.—Mr. Wilson, of N. Y., says he is the same man, does not disagree but is of the same mind as when he was here before. He says he thinks it unlawful for the majority of constituents to change the Constitution, and that the Democratic party will be true to the Constitution, and will not change it. And in this connection I would say
